

UNISON

Unison Store and Post Office (1895) – Courtesy Unison Preservation Society

Directions to the run:

Route 7 west to Purcellville.

At exit ramp, left on Route 287.

Right on Business Route 7.

Left (south) on Route 690.

Cross Snickersville Pike (734) and continue on 690 for three miles.

Right on Foxcroft Rd (Route 626).

Left on Unison Rd to the country store on right.

Description of run:

Starting at the former Unison General Store, this a “must-see” course through rural roads in southwestern Loudoun. Lots of stone walls, horse farms, etc.

Hill Rating: 2 (gentle rolling hills)

Surface: M (mix of pavement and gravel roads/trails)

Short route: 7.49 miles

Starting from the former Unison Store, follow Unison Road to Newlin Mill Road.

Make a left onto Newlin Mill Road and follow it to Snake Hill Road.

Make a left onto Snake Hill Road and follow it to Pot House Road.

Make a left onto Pot House Road and follow it to Foxcroft Road.

Make a left onto Foxcroft Road and follow it to Unison Road.

Make a left at Unison Road and follow back to the Unison Store.

Long route: 9.59 miles

Starting from the former Unison Store, follow Unison Road to Newlin Mill Road.

Make a left onto Newlin Mill Road and follow it to St. Louis Road.

Continue straight onto St. Louis Road and follow it to Millville Road.

Make a left onto Millville Road and follow it to Snake Hill Road.

Make a left onto Snake Hill Road and follow it to Pot House Road.

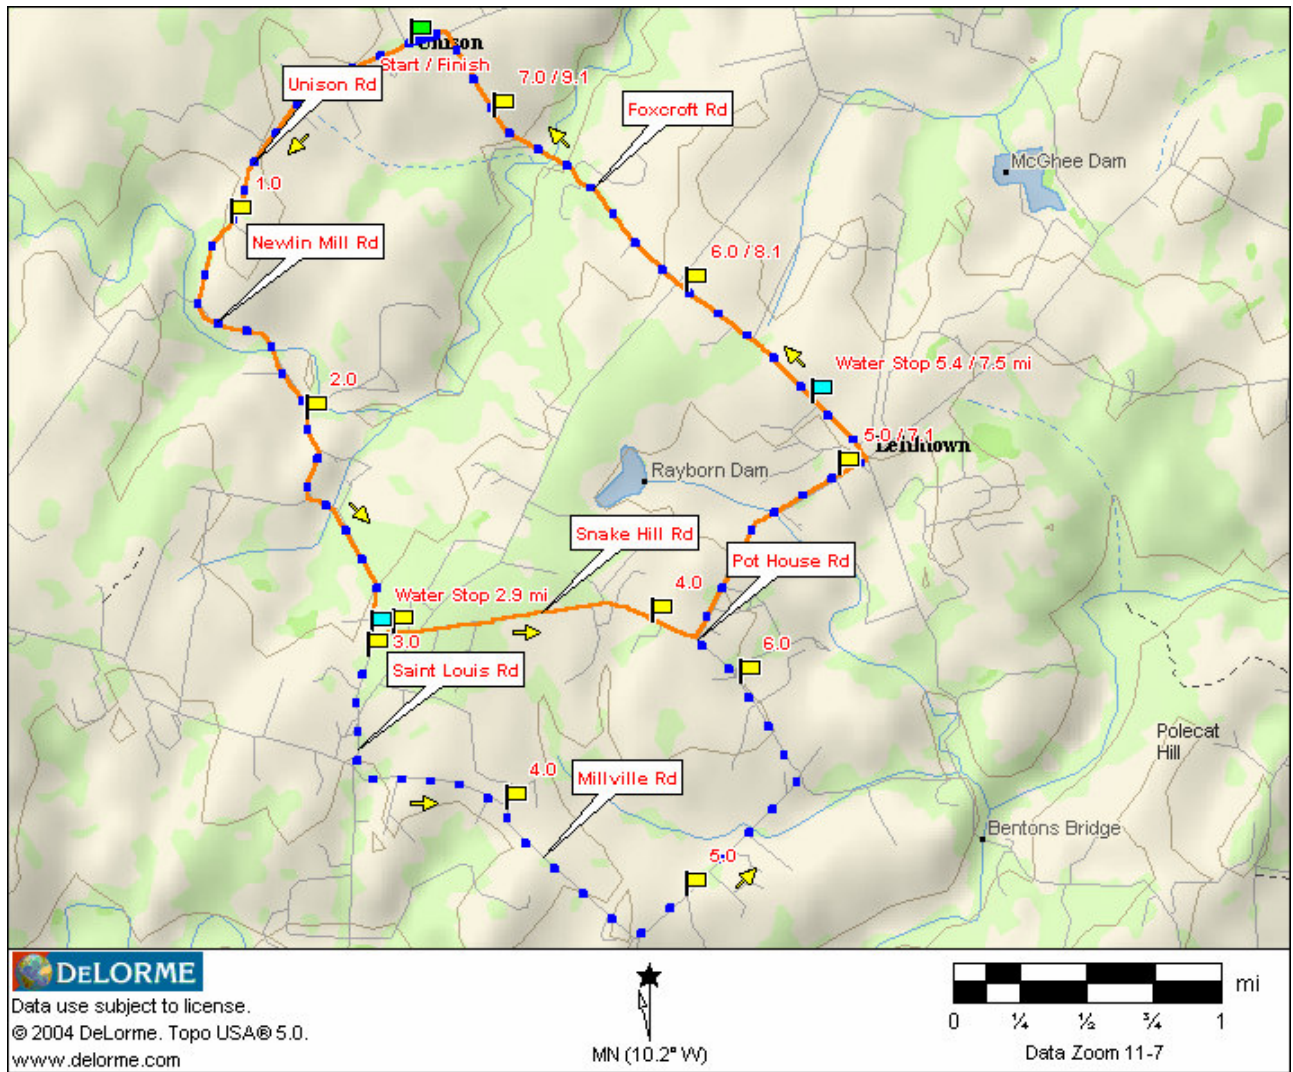

Make a right onto Pot House Road and follow it to Foxcroft Road.

Make a left onto Foxcroft Road and follow it to Unison Road.

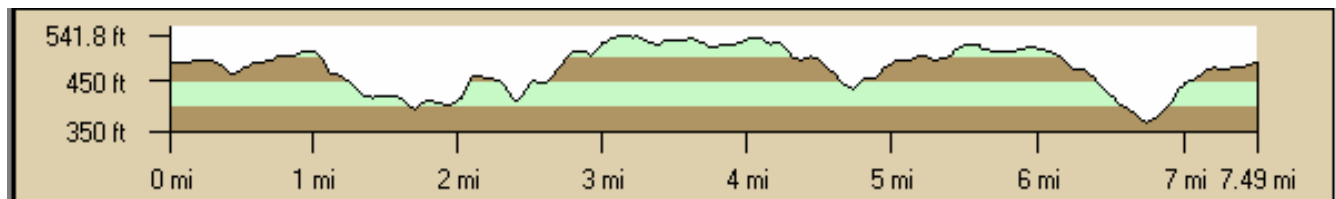

Make a left at Unison Road and follow back to the Unison Store.

(see map on next page)

Map of run:

Elevation (short route):

Elevation (long route):

